New Business: Master Plan Update Survey

Petersen presented a draft survey intended for distribution to all residents of Gilpin County. The purpose of the survey would be to gauge resident's position on several issues that might affect Master Plan entries. Commissioner Wrobel suggested the Planning Commission take the survey to gauge the breath of its member's views. The Planning Commission completed the survey orally supplying general demographic information and attitudinal information on the following topics:

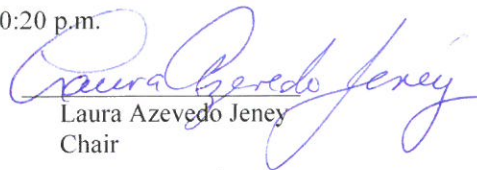

- | | | |
|------------------------|------------------------------|------------------------------|
| • Open space | • Public access | • Recreation sports shooting |
| • Senior living | • Housing | |
| • Economic development | • Environmental conservation | |

Responses were discussed at length. Petersen stated he would compile the results of their answers into a single profile of the Planning Commission attitudes on the individual topics. Petersen mentioned he plans to expand the number of topic to include if so desired to include:

- | | | |
|-------------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------|
| • Historic Preservation | • Commercial signage | • Onsite Wastewater Treatment |
| • Telecommunications | • Views and Vistas | • Other |
| • Road infrastructure | • Mining | |

Adjourn: Meeting ended at 10:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Laura Azevedo Jeney
